SUBJECT: Proposed Revision REFERENCE: Memo to C/RCD From LEG/OLL, same subject, dated 27 June 1984

STAT

1. This is in response to your request for comments on the proposed revision

STAT

2. The proposed revision would establish a maximum time limit for the amount of special leave that could normally be granted

3. Per my telephone conversation with you, I understand that you intend to modify the proposed limit to make it mandatory, rather than as a guide as to how much special leave can be granted. This change, which is in accord with our original suggestion, will satisfy the desire of Chairman Boland of the House Permanent Select Committee of Intelligence (HPSCI) that a mandatory limit be placed on the amount of leave that can be granted. I would suggest that the sentence in the regulation containing the limitation on leave be modified to read as follows:

The amount of special leave and expenses provided will be determined at the discretion of the DCI, DDCI or EXDIR depending upon the circumstances of each case, but will not in any case exceed 30 days.

4. It is requested that this proposed amendment not be promulgated until it is formally transmitted to the HPSCI staff.
